

Members of Canadian Power & Sail Squadrons and US Power Squadrons

have a home during the 2010 games

at the False Creek Yacht Club!

February 2010

For the duration of the Winter Olympic Games, the False Creek Yacht Club will be transformed into Discover Boating House and the best view in False Creek will be open to the public! Show your Canadian Power & Sail Squadron/ US Power Squadron Card for 10% discounts on food in the lounge and enjoy watching the games on the big screen. The lounge will be open for Lunch and Dinner and the pub will be open until 2am for a late night cocktail.

Discover Boating House will be in the epicentre of Olympic venues, minutes to David Lam Park and accessible by Aquabus from Granville Island, Yaletown and Science World. Come and join your fellow boaters and our partners, Pacific Yachting, BC Marine Trades Association, West Marine, Power & Sail Squadron, Disabled Sailing Association, and others... During the Games the Aquabus will be stopping at the False Creek Yacht Club docks.

Monday February 15th is the Power & Sail Squadrons Pub night (replacing the Vancouver Power and Sail Squadron Squadron Night for this unique Games event) at Discover Boating House at the FCYC!

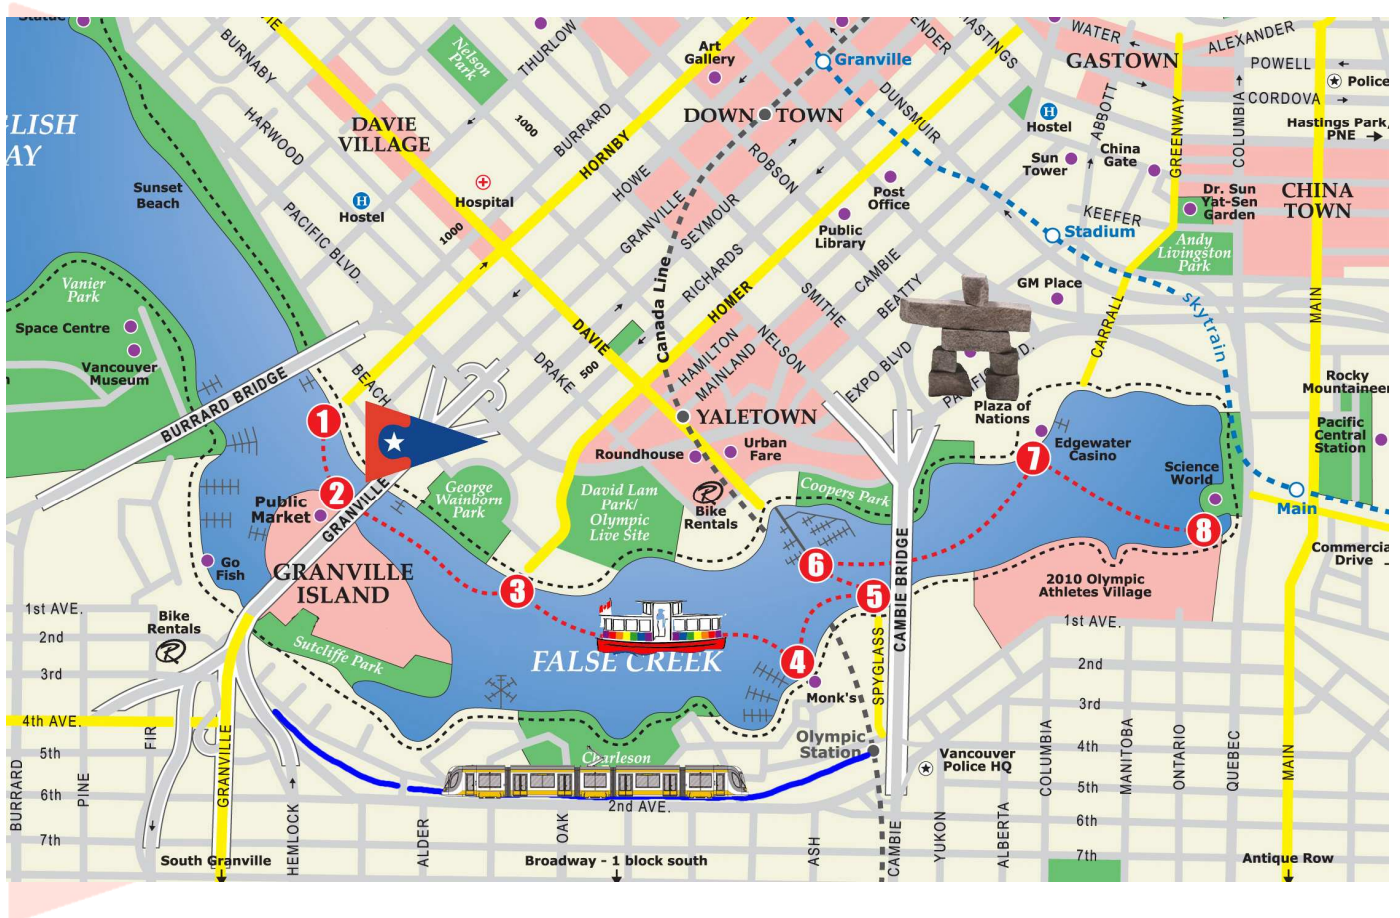

There is no admission charge for this event or other events during the Games at the FCYC. Great opportunity to meet and greet your fellow boaters in the heart of the Olympics! This is an event you won't want to miss! Remember to enter the FCYC draw - one lucky guest will win free initiation to the False Creek Yacht Club during the games – a value of $10,000!

Top 5 Reasons to Hightail it to Discover Boating House at the False Creek Yacht Club during the games...
